WORLD DEVELOPMENTS

The world today is in a sad and sorry plight. Economic ferment and political upheaval have in the past few years brought many countries such disaster and suffering that a serious conflict involving all nations has seemed to be inevitable. The consequences of such a catastrophe defeat the imagination, and the prospect is, indeed, disturbing. The established leaders of peace-loving countries have sought to stave off this Armageddon, but their efforts at settlement of the world's problems have so far only drawn us dangerously closer to it.

What, then, can save humanity and bring peace? Change of leadership or change of attitude appear to thinking men to be the only possible solutions. The first course, it need scarcely be pointed out, is of its own fundamental perilous and is even more so in the present explosive atmosphere, and hope rests, therefore, solely in the alternative.

The necessity for such a change has not been completely lost to some statesmen, but they have hitherto wavered and lost much valuable time. It comes as a great relief to all, therefore, to observe that the first steps along this road have at last been taken by certain governments.

Viewed from this standpoint, the most important contribution towards an improvement of the world situation is the lessening of tension over the Spanish question. This was war never in the true sense of a national affair; it has given rise to an international controversy of far-reaching proportions.

Great Britain has been the first country to realise that a successful settlement of this controversy is the first essential in the attempt to lead the world back to ways of law and order. Her greatest concern is not in Spain but in the maintenance of the Mediterranean sea-route, but she has had reason to be suspicious of Italy's motives. Now she is apparently satisfied with the Italian assurances that the latter's actions in Spain and Libya were never meant to be a worldlike challenge, but only intended as a wedge to gain ear to proposals for settling the African question consequent upon Italian penetration into Africa.

The British Plan, aimed at the withdrawal of active participation in Spanish affairs by intervening Powers, has done much to solve the problem. Even Russia, which has sought to arrest the development of the Fascist idea in Spain, has seen fit to agree in order to alleviate the position. No doubt Russia considers the Japanese threat in the Far East of greater moment than the European problem, but as a matter of fact this seems to be the common view of all Western Powers, including Italy and Germany, in spite of the triangular agreement these countries have concluded with Japan.

Germany, which has a colonial complaint of her own, is vastly encouraged by Britain's change of temper, and no doubt Herr Hitler will have discussed with Lord Halifax during the latter's visit some of the things that are causing dissatisfaction, including, it may be presumed, the possibility of revision of League Mandates.

If a genuine Anglo-Italian-German understanding is arrived at, one of the greatest barriers to peace will have been removed. It will lead eventually to the return of Germany to the League, and also serve as a strong deterrent to Japan.

Another notable development, the significance of which may easily be overlooked, is the "unconditional most-favoured-nation reciprocal trade agreement" policy of the United States Government. Time was when America, in common with other countries, sought protection in high tariffs, but she now realises that if other nations are to buy her goods she must also permit them to sell her goods of their own. This is an eminently sensible way of trade bargaining. She has already concluded agreements with a dozen countries, including Canada, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Brazil and others. The method is immensely successful not only in encouraging trade all round but also in forming new bonds of friendship and fair play.

The Ottawa Agreement was more or less based on this principle, but it was confined to the British Empire alone. Britain has now received an invitation from America to negotiate a trade agreement on the same broad lines, and doubtless other British Dominions will later be asked to do the same.

The point most evident in this connection is the recognition of the necessity for organisation and planning based on honest co-operation. International planning, with a greater extent of this co-operation and less cut-throat tactics, will serve to heal many of the world's economic ills.

Anglo-American Trade Pact

"Pushed Forward To Cover Brussels Debacle"

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 20.

THE WEEK OF SPECIAL SESSION OF THE CONGRESS DID NOT YIELD ANY CONSTRUCTIVE MOVE. THIS UNSATISFACTORY PROGRESS IS ATTRIBUTED TO THE MANOEUVRING FOR AND AGAINST PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S FOREIGN POLICY.

WIDESPREAD DISGUST IS SHOWN BY THE CONGRESS AT THE OUTCOME OF THE BRUSSELS CONFERENCE AND THE FAILURE OF THE OTHERS IN DECLARING THAT ALL DEMOCRACIES WERE TO BLAME FOR NOT TAKING A STRONGER LINE.

LOBBY COMMENT SUGGESTS THAT THE ANGLO-AMERICAN TRADE PACT WAS PUSHED FORWARD TO COVER THE BRUSSELS DEBACLE IN ORDER TO GIVE THE PUBLIC SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT INSTEAD OF THE PUSILLANIMOUS RECORD OF BRUSSELS.—REUTER.

Hitler Voices Germany's Desire For Peace?

Berlin, Nov. 20.

During his five-day visit, Lord Halifax has met practically everyone of consequence in present day Germany and it is believed he is satisfied with the political atmosphere his visit engendered. Well-informed circles consider it probable that Herr Hitler, during the conversations, stressed Germany's desire for peace and preference for a bilateral agreement rather than extensive international pacts.

German circles opine that further developments can be expected from the conversations. A notable feature of the press references to Anglo-German problems is the almost total eclipse of the colonial question. The "Berliner Tageblatt" states that "great practical results could not be expected of this talk which was only of an informative character but it is worth while emphasising again the satisfaction felt in Germany over the fact that these talks should have been possible at all."—REUTER.

HALIFAX-HITLER CONVERSATIONS

Berlin, Nov. 20.

It is understood that the informal conversations between Lord Halifax and Herr Hitler and the German Foreign Minister, Baron von Neurath, reached a point at which there is a reasonable hope that they may be translated to more official channels.

German circles appear to be very satisfied with the trend of the discussions, and it is officially stated that Lord Halifax has invited Baron von Neurath to visit England to continue the talks. No date has yet been fixed for the visit.

SHIPPING TO SHANGHAI

To Be Resumed Shortly?

New York, Nov. 20.

Early resumption of the steamship service to Shanghai is foreseen following reports that the seventy-five per cent. reduction in war risk insurance rates in London will be followed here probably next week. Acceptance of cargoes may at first be on an optional bill-of-lading, permitting discharge at any port should the call at Shanghai become inadvisable.—REUTER.

STUDENTS HELP

Funds For Chinese Universities

London, Nov. 20.

Up to now £1500 has been raised by collections amongst students in the universities, theological and technical training colleges throughout Britain with the object of supporting the Chinese efforts to keep their universities running, remote from the war area.

£500 has already been sent from Britain through Geneva. The English committee of the International Student Service has undertaken to raise £4,000 in the course of this year.—REUTER.

JAPAN ATTEMPTS UNIFICATION

Tokyo, Nov. 20.

It is officially stated that the Imperial Headquarters will be established in the Imperial Palace.

A spokesman, in a statement, set up the view that it placed the Army and Navy General Staffs on a war footing for the full scale operation of all arms to meet the threatened protracted hostilities in China and unifying them under the supreme command of the Emperor. Hitherto it was under the divided control of the Army and Navy general staffs.

The spokesman categorically denied that the Headquarters combines the General Staffs and Cabinet, or that it is the precursor of a War Cabinet.—REUTER.

BETTER CO-ORDINATION

Shanghai, Nov. 20.

A Japanese naval spokesman announced the receipt of official news regarding the formation of Imperial general headquarters in Tokyo. This step signifies the creation of a War Department designed for better co-ordination of the Japanese armed forces and all national activities to cope with the present emergency.—REUTER.

CHINESE TROOPS MASSED FOR NANKING DEFENCE

JAPANESE STEADILY ADVANCING

Tokyo, Nov. 21.

The capture of Soochow by the Japanese troops is considered an important step in their advance on Nanking.

According to reports received here yesterday the Japanese front now extends from Changsha in the north through Soochow to Nanking in the south, and despite bad weather the advance has been continued.

It is further stated that the Japanese objective in the north is the port of Kiangying on the right bank of the Yangtze River, which they are already approaching.

It is also stated that the Japanese are advancing through Kashing to Nanking and further reports show that 700,000 Chinese troops assembled for the defence of Nanking.—TRANSOCEAN.

MORE JAPANESE "REQUESTS"

Council Urged To Take Steps

Shanghai, Nov. 21.

Contending that the communist and anti-Japanese activities engaged by the Chinese within the Settlement "obstructed" the Japanese military operations in the lower Yangtze area, Major-General Harada, Japanese Military Attaché, has asked for an official curb of such movements by the Municipal authorities, according to a communique issued by the Headquarters of the Japanese Expeditionary force.

It is added that in an interview with the leading Council officials, Maj.-Gen. Harada urgently pleaded that appropriate action be taken against such "subversive activities." He emphasised that the Japanese military authorities "reserve the right to adopt any measures which they regarded necessary" should the steps be taken by the Council fail to achieve the desired purpose.—REUTER.

BRAZIL SUSPENDS PAYMENTS

Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 21.

A statement issued, following the Cabinet meeting, states that the Government has decided to suspend, from to-day, the remittance of funds for foreign debt and adds that the Government has authorised the Minister of Finance to open negotiations with interested parties for the conclusion of new agreements in accordance with Brazil's resources. It is pointed out that the measure does not affect commercial arrears.—REUTER.

EVER THE OPTIMIST

JAPAN ANTICIPATES CHAMPAGNE DINNER!

Shanghai, Nov. 21.

The virtual collapse of the Chinese "Hindenburg Line" has aroused pessimism as regards the prospects of an effective resistance in the Wush-Kianglin Front where the bulk of the Chinese forces between Soochow and Yangtze are reported to be withdrawing with the Japanese infantry in hot pursuit aided by aeroplanes bombing the Chinese positions.

Japanese circles are now openly anticipating a champagne dinner in Nanking to usher in the New Year.

NO CENSORSHIP OF CABLES

Shanghai, Nov. 21.

The latest branch of Chinese authority to cease functioning in Shanghai is the censors who, quietly and unannounced, have been withdrawn from the Eastern, Northern, Commercial and Pacific offices. Consequently there is no censorship of cables here for the first time since 1931. This does not unnecessarily imply Japanese censorship.—REUTER.

MARTIAL LAW

Shanghai, Nov. 20.

It is reported from Tsinan, capital of Shantung province, that martial law has been imposed there between the hours of 9.30 p.m. and 6 a.m. A number of looters have been executed.

There are no trains running to Tsinan from Shanghai at present.—REUTER.

Happy Eve Wins Hong Kong St. Leger

Wild Life Shows Field Clean Pair Of Heels

HARVEST VIEW RETURNS DAY'S BIGGEST DIVIDEND

THE ELEVENTH EXTRA RACE MEETING HELD AT THE RACE COURSE YESTERDAY WAS A VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE, FEATURED AS IT WAS BY EXTREMELY GOOD SPORT. THE FINISH IN THE HONG KONG ST. LEGER, THE SECOND RACE ON THE PROGRAMME, WAS ONE OF THE BEST SEEN IN THE VALLEY FOR MANY A LONG DAY. IT WAS WON IN GRAND STYLE BY HAPPY EVE, WITH MR. F. MARSHALL UP. THE SECOND PONY WAS EXPANSION TIME (MR. S. C. LIANG) WHICH WAS ONLY A SHORT HEAD IN FRONT OF THE SECOND STRING FROM THE EVE STABLE—HAVOC EVE WITH MR. NORMAN DEITZ ON THE SADDLE.

In the fifth race of the day Bobniak Star, ridden by Mr. S. C. Liang, sustained, it is learned, a broken leg, throwing the jockey heavily. Mr. Liang escaped with a bad shaking but the pony had to be brought back to the stables in the ambulance box and later destroyed.

The most successful jockey of the day was Mr. Donald Black who had two firsts while Mr. Dunbar headed the owners' list with two wins. The Derby Day-Yum Sing combination paid only $31.70 for the Daily Double while the biggest dividend of the day was paid by Harvest View (Mr. Y. T. Fung) who returned $81.90 for a $5 bet.

CASTLE PEAK HANDICAP

One of the best finishes seen in Happy Valley for many a long day was provided in the Castle Peak Handicap when Wild Life (Mr. D. Black) finished with an excellent burst of speed to win the Castle Peak Handicap from Gladiator (Mr. F. Marshall) who was a short head in front of Bear Claw (Mr. S. L. Yuen). The finish was very thrilling, the issue being in doubt till the very end.

Oak Bay (Mr. W. H. S. Davis) and Gladiator ran side by side for three parts of the race but after the Rock was passed Bear Claw moved up and ran together with the two leading ponies. Then at the Distance Post Wild Life came up like a streak and challenged the leaders strongly, eventually winning by a head.

1.—Castle Peak Handicap (1 Mile) Mr. L. Dunbar's Wild Life, 153 lbs. (Mr. D. Black) 1 Mr. E. Ye's Gladiator, 146 lbs. (Mr. F. Marshall) 2 Mrs. Dunbar's Bear Claw, 163 lbs. (Mr. S. L. Yuen) 3 Won by a head, short head between second and third.

HONG KONG ST. LEGER

The Hong Kong St. Leger resulted in an easy win for the much-fancied Happy Eve with Mr. F. Marshall on the saddle. It was obvious from the very start that the result would be between the three ponies that filled the first three positions—and in passing it might be mentioned that the final positions were correctly given by "Last Quarter" in our issue on Saturday. There was nothing in the race as the first three ponies were far superior to the others in the race.

2.—Hong Kong St. Leger (1½ Miles) Mr. E. Ye's Happy Eve, 156 lbs. (Mr. F. Marshall) 1 Mr. Li Po-chun's Expansion Time, 156 lbs. (Mr. S. C. Liang) 2 Mr. E. Ye's Havoc Eve, 156 lbs. (Mr. N. Deitz) 3 Won by many lengths, short head between second and third.

Time: 3:33.1. Pari-mutuel:— Win: $6.10. Places: $5.30, $5.60. Also ran:—King's Coronation, 156 lbs. (B. A. Proulx); Scenic View, 151 (B. L. Tao).

BARRIER REEF HANDICAP

This was a sprint event over six furlongs and the field was bunched together for the whole way. Home Brew (Mr. B. A. Proulx) had a slight lead up to the Quarter-Mile Post but coming into the straight Double Finesse (Mr. H. C. Pih) shot out in front and finished strongly to win by a length and a half. Meanwhile Blandford (Mr. N. Deitz) had passed Home Brew to take second place.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP

Mr. Y. T. Fung, on Harvest View, a fine race to win the Shum Chun Handicap, taking the lead from the time the barrier went up. He was followed by Vira (Mr. S. C. Liang) all the way but at the Distance Post the latter faded out of the picture. Boolat Bay (Mr. D. Black) finished with a fine burst to take second place and Jungle Jim (Mr. H. C. Pih) was third. Harvest View, incidentally, paid $81.90 for a win.

4.—Shum Chun Handicap (First Section) 1 Mile Mr. Lan's Harvest View, 168 lbs. (Mr. Y. T. Fung) 1 Mr. L. Dunbar's Boolat Bay, 161 lbs. (Mr. D. Black) 2 Mr. Lan's Jungle Jim, 140 lbs. (Mr. H. C. Pih) 3 Won by length-and-a-half, the same between second and third.

NEW BRIDGE HANDICAP

Derby Day (Mr. S. W. Tang) won the New Bridge Handicap comfortably from Vixen Tor (Mr. L. P. Ralph) and Saucy Face (Mr. H. C. Pih). Eleven starters engaged in this race and the field was lunched together for the most part. Even when the field came into the Home stretch the ponies were still bunched together and it was not till after the Distance Post was passed that it began to "thin out."

Bobniak Star was badly injured in this race when it stumbled and had to be brought back to the stable in the "box." Mr. S. C. Liang, the jockey, was badly shaken. He was to have ridden King's Jubilee in the following race but his place was taken by Mr. S. N. Tang.

5.—New Bridge Handicap (From the 1½ Mile Post) Dr. S. N. Tang's Derby Day, 148 lbs. (Mr. S. W. Tang) 1 Mr. G. Tinson's Vixen Tor, 159 lbs. (Mr. L. P. Ralph) 2 Mr. Why's Saucy Face, 154 lbs. (Mr. H. C. Pih) 3 Won by length-and-a-half, the same between second and third.

SHUM CHUN HANDICAP

Both Gordito (Mr. F. Marshall) and Commencement Bay (Mr. D. Black) were heavily fancied in the Shum Chun Handicap (second section) but neither even gained a place. Royal Highness (Mr. B. L. Tao) running with a beautiful stride to win by three lengths from Night View (Mr. H. C. Pih) which was only a short head in front of Rose Evelyn (Mr. Norman Deitz).

Amberley (Mr. Y. T. Fung), set the pace for this race but it could not keep it up and after staying in the back until the Quarter-Mile Post Mr. Tao gave his mount just a flick of the whip and the chestnut responded gamely and finished full of fighting.

ART CLUB EXHIBITION
REFLECTIONS

MISS WHITHAM'S FINE STUDY

MRS. PFISTER'S PASTELS EXCEL

It must be the unanimous opinion of all who visited the Hong Kong Art Club's exhibition held during the past week at Gloucester Building, that the exhibits displayed were on the whole of a high standard and in keeping with past exhibitions of this Club. It was, to put it shortly, an hour well spent amidst a feast of water colours, pastels, oils and ivory carving, the whole of which together formed a most pleasing variety.

There were twenty-three exhibitors and a total of 183 exhibits. Though the works of Kae Horsburgh were included in the catalogue they were not on view as her entries were too late. Mr. A. Mitchell's entries were exhibited but they apparently did not arrive in time for inclusion in the printed catalogue.

An hour's intensive viewing of over 180 exhibits is perhaps, from the art lover's point of view, insufficient to do full justice to a complete criticism. Hence the title of this article.

The hanging of the pictures was well arranged, in alphabetical order, and each one was numbered and the title contained in the catalogue. Prices ranged from $10 to $200.

Spectators moved from gallery to gallery, to and fro, often returning for a second and third look. There were visual expressions of admiration for this picture of a junk or that painting of a harbour scene.

MISS WHITHAM'S WORK

Among the portrait studies on view the works of Miss M. Whitham were outstanding and in the writer's opinion her study, "Head of a Young Girl" was the best in the exhibition. It was the head of a typical Chinese girl and the facial expression was splendid. All the characteristics of the Chinese face were there and with deft touches Miss Whitham gave the study life.

Miss S. Mackichan's two charcoal portraits were skilfully executed and here too facial expressions were not lost.

Mrs. A. N. Macfadyen's portrait studies in pencil were commendable.

MRS. PFISTER'S PASTELS

The works of Mrs. M. O. Pfister were the best among the pastel studies. She had three of Hong Kong garden scenes and several of Chinwangtao which were really beautiful. "The Downs," "Harvest" and "Before the Storm" called for special commendation.

In this category, Mrs. C. B. Brown had some neat studies but the majority of her works lacked the clean finish of those of Mrs. Pfister. "Looking from Mount Kellett" was the best of Mrs. Brown's efforts.

Among the wealth of water colours, Mrs. H. C. J. Asche scored with a truly delightful study of the Peak from Kowloon. The natural beauties of Hong Kong's harbour with its multifarious craft and activities were fully captured. Priced at only $30 the writer suggests that the purchase of this study would be a sound investment for the Hong Kong Travel Association to adorn their Kowloon kiosk. Mrs. Asche also had a few other splendid scenes.

MR. WONG SIU-LING

Mr. Wong Siu-ling was the best among the Chinese exhibitors. This artist's work had a good, wholesome finishing touch and this was easily seen in his landscapes of Kwunlin, Kwangsi, and local scenes. "In the Dockyard" was very effective as was "Sunset" and a study in clouds.

The work of Mr. Lee Byng was highly commendable and the writer is given to understand that his study, "Hong Kong Night," was considered one of the best pictures in the whole exhibition. Two studies of Kam Tin in the New Territories, one each of Shaui-kwan, Stonecutters Island and "Unloading" attracted great attention.

MR. LUIS CHAN

Mr. Luis Chan hung several oil paintings and water colours. In the former "Christ Church, Kowloon Tong" was among the best but on the whole his oils were not very effective. But in his water colours—this artist led one to the conclusion that all of them were studies gained at first impressions, that is, as the artist first saw his subject, and left at that. "Cleaning the Bottom" and "Boat on the Slipway" were among the better ones of his in this class.

Miss Helen Ho's two brushwork studies were neat and her work shows considerable promise.

Mr. Peter S. Leong had two splendid oils, "Asleep" and "Botanical Gardens" and a tempera and water colour, while Mr. Chan Kong-lee was responsible for three water colours, his best effort being "Cloud Study."

"THE LIDO" Mr. George Arnold, who is a well-known exhibitor, had a pleas-

FIRST AID
LECTURESMR. LAU KING-TSING
STARTS NEW CLASSES

Commencing tomorrow and concluding in the first week of January next year first aid and anti-gas lectures for Chinese boys will be given under the auspices of the Chinese Athletic Association Division. St. John Ambulance Brigade. First announcement of this was made exclusively in "The Daily Press" on Saturday and to-day we furnish complete details regarding the programme, for which Mr. Lau King-ting, Patron of the Division, and Vice-Patron of the St. John Ambulance Association, is responsible, both for the arrangements and sole financial support.

It is learned that up to the present 185 boys have been registered for the classes although when the idea was first mooted it was the aim of the organisers to enrol 100 youths.

Two classes have been formed and for the purposes of anti-gas demonstrations, the Fung Keung Rubber Manufactory have presented eight gas masks.

Registration closed on Friday and among the boys registered are some from Kowloon and a number from Shaui-kwan. Owing to the inability in procuring a site it has been found impossible to establish a similar centre in the Eastern district.

Lectures which Mr. Lau King-ting, who is also President of the Anti-Heroic Society and Vice-Chairman of the Chung Sing Benevolent Society, has been solely instrumental in arranging, will be given gratis by Drs. T. C. Chow, P. S. Li, S. K. Lam, L. S. Shin, M. W. Shi, F. I. Tseung, and Messrs. Chik Tai-kwong, Corps Superintendent, and Se To Chung, Corps Officer. Dr. Tseung and Mr. T. K. Kwong will give lectures on anti-gas measures.

"STREET SLEEPER"

Maurice R. Brice, Miss Elsie Blanchard and Robert Freese exhibited several water colours of a moderately good standard. Mr. Brice's entries featured "Sampans" and "Street Sleeper" while Mr. Freese had two Seychelles studies also "Shoeshine Boy" and "Sampans Woman."

The work of Mrs. M. C. Franks was best conveyed in a good study, "Laughing Buddha" and "Dwellings."

Mrs. H. A. Mills had several oils among which "A Hong Kong view from Taihang Road" was outstanding. Her water colour flower studies were commendable also a Hong Kong road scene.

The portrait studies in oils and charcoal by Mrs. A. Tatz were good, the best being a charcoal drawing of the late Capt. N. Rodestvin and a portrait of Mrs. M. Cunliffe in oils.

MR. F. S. NICHOLLS

In the field of pen and ink sketches the works of Mr. F. S. Nicholls excelled. His studies of Chinese junks of various designs and shapes formed an interesting series and his "On Lan Street" and "Soochow Creek" were very well executed. He also had many fairly good water colours. "Hong Kong by Night" was a really good effort and most effective, though his nude study was only fair.

Mr. A. Mitchell exhibited one or two nice Chinese junk studies but the majority of these and his scenes lacked that extra touch which makes all the difference between a good finish and an unfinished study. His pen work was a trifle scratchy.

The ivory carving by Mr. Chen Tze-yang was marvellous the intricate designs on the smallest of pieces of ivory being very praiseworthy. He was an exhibiton on his own and commanded considerable attention.

Summed up, the Hong Kong Art Club's exhibition was splendid.—E. MacN.

NO DEVELOPMENT ON SHANTUNG FRONT

Tsinan, Nov. 20: Chinese and Japanese forces are still holding out on the opposite banks of the Yellow River in north Shantung. With the exception of intermittent exchange of artillery fire there has been so far no development on the Shantung front.

Circumstances leading to the Chinese withdrawal to the south bank of the River were revealed in an official report published here. It was stated that on November 10 a detachment of Japanese reinforcements advanced from Tsangchow on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway to Chingyun on the Hopen-Shansi border and dislodged a smaller Chinese garrison there the following day.

After capturing the town, the Japanese detachment pushed toward Huimin on the Shabo River in north Shantung in an attempt to cross the Yellow River at Chinghoen and march down to Chowtsun, on the Kiaotsi Railway.

Aware of the menace of this Japanese flank movement, General Fu-chu, according to the report, rushed reinforcements to Huimin to check their advance and placed heavy troops at Chinghoen to prevent them from crossing the River. Meanwhile, he ordered the Chinese forces at Shangho west of Huimin to attack the Japanese rear by a round-about route.

The inefficiency of the Chinese military command at Huimin resulted in the fall of the city of November 12, the report stated. Knowing that heavy Chinese troops had been stationed at Chinghoen, the Japanese detachment changed their course toward Tsiyang on the north bank of the Yellow River north-east of Tsinan and took the city by a surprise attack on November 13.

Having captured Tsiyang, the Japanese detachment pushed toward Lokow on the north bank of the Yellow River to attack the Chinese rear on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway. Simultaneously the Japanese central column at Yueheng on the Railway and the Japanese left wing at Kaotang launched fierce offensives in an attempt to converge at Lokow.

Lest the Chinese rear should be cut off by the Japanese flank attack, a general withdrawal to the south bank of the Yellow River, the report said, was ordered by General Han on November 15. To prevent the Japanese from crossing the river the railway bridge at Lokow was twice dynamited by the Chinese troops on the night of November 15 and the morning of November 16.—Central News.

FALL OF SOOCHOW

Shanghai, Nov. 20. A Japanese Army spokesman announced that Japanese occupation of Soochow began yesterday morning following a surprise attack. He recounted how the night before the "most amazing feat in the history of the war" was performed by two parties of Japanese scouts, numbering seven or eight men each, who fell in with the Chinese troops retreating to Soochow and marched with them to the city through the open gates. They proceeded to the Pagoda and hoisted the Japanese flag. On seeing the flag at dawn the Chinese troops withdrew.—Reuter.

NANKING CONFIRMATION

Shanghai, Nov. 20. A message from Nanking confirms the fall of Soochow to the Japanese.—Reuter.

"CUMBERLAND" DUE IN PORT

Shanghai, Nov. 25. H.M.S. Cumberland left her moorings off the Shanghai Club early this afternoon and sailed for Hong Kong. She is replaced by H.M.S. Falmouth and H.M.S. Folkestone.

Admiral Sir Charles Little, who is remaining in Shanghai, has made the Falmouth his flagship. It is reported that U.S.S. Augusta may proceed to Manila shortly, but no official announcement has yet been made.—Reuter.

JAPAN SEEKS SYMPATHY

Rome, Nov. 20. Baron Okura arrived in Rome to-day, and in an interview with Stefani, the Italian news agency, said:

"I shall seek to promote collaboration between the two peoples for their well-being and for the peace of the world."—Reuter.

SOCIETY BOWLS

St. Andrew's Defeat St. George's

ENJOYABLE MATCH

The annual Lawn Bowls match between St. Andrew's Society and St. George's Society took place at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club on Saturday afternoon. St. Andrew's won by 135 shots to 100.

At the conclusion of the match, Mr. G. S. Archbutt, President of St. George's Society, expressed his gratitude to the President, Committee and members of the Bowling Green Club for allowing the Societies to use their greens, and to the many ladies who watched the match for gracing the event with their presence. Mr. Archbutt declared that whoever was responsible for the greens should certainly be congratulated on their condition. He then called upon his wife to present spoons to the Scottish rinks.

Sir Atholl MacGregor, Chieftain of St. Andrew's, expressed thanks to the Club and to the ladies, and endorsed the remarks on the condition of the green.

Sir Atholl called upon Mrs. A. Stevenson, wife of a past Chieftain, to present the St. Andrew's spoons to the St. George's players.

After this, Sir Atholl presented Mr. J. Henson, the refreshments convener, with a spoon as a tribute to his excellent arrangements, and called for three cheers for Mrs. Archbutt and Mrs. Stevenson.

Mr. E. V. Searle, President of the Bowling Green Club, said that he was only too pleased to welcome the two Societies.

Bouquets were presented to Mrs. Archbutt and Mrs. Stevenson by the little Misses Kathleen Hyde-Lay and Madeline Archbutt, respectively.

FLAG DAY

The flag day, held in aid of the S.P.C.A. yesterday resulted in $653 being collected in the central district, on the Peak and at the University, the best return being that of the Bellios Girls' School, whose boxes totalled $215.95. The Ulster Rifles ladies collected $107.86 and the Seaforth ladies, $75.10.

LADIES' HOCKEY

A sensational collapse in the second half saw the St. Andrew's Ladies lose by four goals to one in their Caer Clark Cup hockey match against Hong Kong Ladies after leading by a goal scored early in this period. Actually in the first half the lovers had quite their fair share of the game but this goal of Miss Gittins seemed to bring them luck. They had the lead for only a very short while before Mrs. Perrin equalised for the Hong Kong ladies and a little later the same player added another, while Miss Weddell and Mrs. Marsh each scored one more.

In the Brawn Cup series St. Andrew's Ladies beat the Seaforth Ladies by three clear goals and Reclote Ladies beat the Central British Association Ladies by one nil, while the C.B.S. "B" team beat "X" Ladies by three nil.

Miss Tsui's bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Li, was dressed in green satin. They carried pink gladioli.

Dr. Li Ching-wah undertook the duties of best man.

The wedding was conducted by Bishop Hall and the Rev. Paul Tso.

A reception was held at the Roof Garden of the Gloucester Hotel.

UNRELENTING PUSH BY JAPANESE

Shanghai, Nov. 20. Soochow, key point of the Chinese defence, has fallen according to Japanese reports received in Shanghai this morning.

Despite heavy rainfall, the Japanese forces continue to press through the Chinese left flank, while the Japanese troops advancing in the centre claim to have entered Soochow. This probably marks the collapse of the Chinese Hindenburg Line, but the Wush-Kiangyin front is probably strongly held and is already manned by fresh troops from Kwangtung and Szechuen.

Having broken the Chinese left flank and penetrated the centre, the Japanese are now making a powerful attempt to smash the right flank. According to Japanese reports, the Chinese troops who evacuated Soochow are falling back to Wush, and the Japanese are expected to encounter strong resistance when they try to break the Wush-Kiangyin line which has been heavily reinforced.—Reuter.
